AMERICAN SAW MACHINERY

—DEALER IN—

GRANIT
AND MARBLE

An illustration of a person, possibly a woman, using a large hand saw to cut a block of granite or marble on a workbench. The person is wearing a long dress and is positioned to the right of the workbench, leaning over it. The workbench is a simple wooden structure with a flat top. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. The illustration is in a woodcut or engraving style, with fine lines and cross-hatching for shading.
